Executive Proclamation
State of South Dakota
Office of the Governor

Whereas, Muriel Larson graduated from St. Luke's Hospital School of Nursing in Minnesota in 1964; later earning a Bachelor of Arts degree in Nursing, a Master of Arts in Biomedical Ethics and Nursing from Augustana College; and,

Whereas, Muriel served as an instructor and assistant professor of nursing at The University of South Dakota from 1977 to 2001 and has employed her talents at Augustana College since 2001 and will now retire after a successful career in nursing; and,

Whereas, Muriel held many positions as a staff nurse, consultant and instructor/coordinator with various hospitals in South Dakota and Minnesota; and,

Whereas, Muriel's retirement days will find her traveling and spending time with family; and,

Whereas, Muriel will be recognized with a luncheon at the Minnehaha Country Club as her friends, relatives and colleagues gather to honor her on May 12, 2007; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make special note of this outstanding South Dakotan on the occasion of her retirement:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 12, 2007, as in South Dakota.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Seventh Day of May in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Seven.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
